

FIVE NAVY MEDICINE MOMENTS IN JUNE 2018 [PHOTOS]

Every day, more than 63,000 Navy Medicine personnel are operating forward around the world, providing agile and rapid health care support to the Navy and Marine Corps. Saving lives wherever our forces operate is what we do, be it above the sea, on the sea, below the sea or on the battlefield. The following photos depict important events and our medical professionals at work during June 2018.

*YOKOSUKA, Japan (June 14, 2018) – Personnel assigned to U.S. Naval Hospital (USNH) Yokosuka treat a simulated patient during a mass casualty drill in conjunction with the Military Sealift Command hospital ship USNS Mercy (T-AH 19). The drill was conducted in order to prepare medical staff for a mass casualty scenario involving a maritime incident at sea. USNH Yokosuka is the largest U.S. military treatment facility on mainland Japan caring for approximately 43,000 eligible beneficiaries. Mercy is making port visits to Yokosuka and Tokyo to promote relationships between U.S. Navy Sailors and Japanese citizens through cultural exchange and bilateral training. BEATTYVILLE, Ky. (June 21, 2018) U.S. Navy Lt. Xin Wu, a nurse from Expeditionary Medical Facility Bethesda in Maryland, takes the blood pressure of a patient at a health-care clinic being operated by the Air Guard and U.S. Navy Reserve at Lee County High School in Beattyville, Ky., June 21, 2018. The clinic is one of four that comprised Operation Bobcat, a 10-day mission to provide military medical troops with crucial training in field operations and logistics while offering no-cost health care to the residents of Eastern Kentucky. The clinics, which operated from June 15-24, offered non-emergent medical care; sports physicals; dental cleanings, fillings and extractions; eye exams and no-cost prescription eye glasses.
